2. Content Oversight and Approval

All content published on Fehimaa is subject to verification and approval by the MJS 2.0 Administrative Team or designated School Administrators.

Articles authored by students, staff, or affiliated organizations are reviewed for accuracy, quality, and relevance prior to publication.

Fehimaa upholds editorial integrity by ensuring that every published item aligns with the school's values, communication standards, and academic policies.

3. Content Scope

Fehimaa publishes a wide range of school-related content, including but not limited to:

- Institutional news and circulars
- Announcements and updates
- Media coverage and event highlights
- Interviews with staff, students, and alumni
- Principal and administrative statements
- Student achievements and features
- Club and Student Council activities

All published materials are original works produced under the supervision of the MJS 2.0 Team, with proper identification of contributors and authors.

4. Content Identification and Authorship

Each article or media post is tagged with:

- The author's name and designation
- The division or department responsible (if applicable)
- A unique content reference ID or publication timestamp for authenticity and archiving purposes

Fehimaa maintains a transparent authorship framework, ensuring that credit and accountability are given for every published work.

5. Purpose of the Statement

This Content and Identification Statement serves both as:

- A Record of Authenticity, verifying that all content published under Fehimaa originates from recognized sources within the MJS 2.0 framework; and
- A Declaration of Ownership and Publication Standards, affirming that Fehimaa's media operations adhere to ethical and institutional content principles.

6. Legal Attribution and Copyright

All text, images, and media content published through Fehimaa are the intellectual property of the MJS 2.0 Team, under representation of Mohamed Jamaluddin School.

Unauthorized reproduction, distribution, alteration, or external publication of Fehimaa content without prior written permission is strictly prohibited.

All rights are reserved under the MJS 2.0 Digital Communications Policy and the MJS School Network Framework.

7. Declaration

This Content and Identification Statement (FCIS) was officially issued on October 18, 2025, by the MJS 2.0 Team for Fehimaa, the official digital News Bulletin operating under the MJS 2.0 platform of Mohamed Jamaluddin School, Gn. Fuvahmulah, Maldives.
